What does it mean to be a Muslim in Britain today?

I can understand the origins of the Islam faith

I can understand the importance of Muhammed (PBUH).

I can understand what the Shahadah and Tawhid are.

We started this unit by looking at these famous faces and guessing what they had in common. Because we were in an RE lesson, we thought they may follow the same religion: Islam. We then learnt about the origins of the faith. We were surprised to hear that Mohammed was such an important prophet, that he is referred to with the initials PBUH afterwards. This stands for Peace Be Upon Him.

What do these people have in common?

About 500 years after the birth of Jesus, a good, kind man called Muhammad (PBUH) lived in the city of Mecca. He thought that many of the people were wrong to worship statue, so he went into a cave to be alone. Suddenly, the angel Gabriel appeared in front of Muhammad (PBUH). The angel showed him words. Even though he had never learned to read, he could say the words the angel showed him. The words were from Allah. Muhammad remembered all of them and later wrote them down to form the Quran.

The Shahadah

 There is no God but God and Muhammad (PBUH) is the messenger of God.

The Tawhid

 There is no god but Allah.
